I downloaded and installed Git (I already have a Github account with my school email) and set up an SSH key so I can pull and push things to and from Github. I also read through the rest of the lab instructions.